Ange Gabrielle Bawou is a commanding Cameroonian goalkeeper known for her exceptional shot-stopping, strong aerial presence, and calm leadership under pressure. Standing at around 1.80 m, Ange brings an impressive physical profile to the position, allowing her to confidently control her penalty area and handle crosses with authority.

A proven performer in high-stakes matches, Bawou has earned recognition across Africa for her consistency, maturity, and match-winning saves. Her performances have won her accolades—including a Golden Glove award in Nigeria—and she continues to grow through international experience with the Cameroon national team and continental competition exposure with her club.
Committed, resilient, and driven, Bawou is a goalkeeper with the mentality and talent to impact any team she represents. She is widely regarded as one of the most exciting goalkeepers in African women's football.
